1: Jointly Developed

(Describe/List how parents will be involved in the development of the school Family and Community Engagement plan and how parents will be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of Family and Community Engagement programs.)

- Parents and stakeholders will be involved in the development, review, update, and evaluation of the Family and Community Engagement plan. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)
- Central Elementary Family and Community Engagement Plan will be available via website for review or by paper copy upon request. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)
- All family members are invited to join Central's CIA organization (a family/teacher/community association) to be involved in the evaluation and review of the Family and Community Engagement Plan annually. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- A suggestion form will be available to any parent/family members for parents to submit comments to the district if the Title I plan is not satisfactory.
- Parents who would like to be represented in a variety of roles throughout the school can submit a form. Parents can also make suggestions about opportunities for regular meetings and family nights. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)

2: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised Family and Community Engagement policy.)

Central Elementary will conduct an annual parent meeting in September 2021. At this meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. Also, during this meeting, the building principal updates the parents on the "state of the school." She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, and explanation of Title I and its benefits, and Family and Community Engagement opportunities (literacy nights, math nights, One Book/One School, etc.) It is also during this time that parents are given the opportunity to complete a survey. (Julia Treadway, September 2021)

3: Communications

(Describe/List how the Family and Community Engagement policy will be distributed to parents and how the school is going to communicate with parents including information about how the school will provide information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to parents in a format, to the extent practicable, and in a language that parents can understand.)

- Central Elementary will ensure their Family and Community Engagement Plan is available to parents online by August 1st. Printed copies will also be available upon request. (Terena Woodruff, Liz Massey, October 2021)
- Parents will sign electronically acknowledging the location of the plan during new student or back to school online registration. Paper copies are available on request. (Julia Treadway, October 2021)
- All contact information for Amanda Davis, Central Elementary Family and Community Engagement Facilitator will be added to the Family and Community Engagement Plan (amanda.davis@cps.k12.ar.us, 501-743-3564 ext. 2055). (Amanda Davis, October 2021)

Central Elementary communicates using a regular two way system of communication in the following ways:

- Weekly school-wide electronic newsletters via SMORE. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Weekly classroom/grade level newsletters sent via communication folders, Remind or Class Dojo apps, or other social media. (Classroom teachers, ongoing)
- School Facebook and Twitter pages frequently updated with important information. (Macy Leggett, Amanda Davis, ongoing)
- Phone calls home as needed. (Classroom teachers, Julia Treadway, Macy Leggett, ongoing)
- Red Family/Teacher communication folders for all grades provide consistency across grade levels, ensuring parents know to check the red folder nightly for important papers. (Classroom teachers, ongoing)
- By offering meetings at various times and in various formats to ensuring accommodation for all families (Julia Treadway, Macy Leggett, ongoing)
- Informational packet provided at Open House that includes the Central Elementary Family and Community Engagement Plan. The packet will also include: a description of the plan, recommended ways and roles for families to be involved in the school, a survey of volunteer interests, a schedule of school and district activities. These items will also be available electronically. (Amanda Davis, August 2021)
- The plan is available in an understandable and uniform format in a language parents can understand. A translation service is available. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)

4: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

- Parents, Faculty & Staff share responsibility for student achievement (Julia Treadway, ongoing).
- Teachers and staff are available for meaningful communication with parents through phone calls and email/apps. Central Elementary strives to ensure parents have reasonable access to staff. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- There will be a minimum of 2 conferences each year (Parent/Teacher Conferences), as well as other parent/family nights to help build a partnership to help students achieve state standards. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Progress reports will be provided twice per year as well. (Julia Treadway October 2021, March 2022)
- Parents/family members are given the opportunity to volunteer through our CIA organization. They can observe class activities and be involved in a variety of roles. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Central Elementary will compile a volunteer resource book so that staff can understand how parents and families wish to be involved. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)

5: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for Family and Community Engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for Family and Community Engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

All Title I schools conduct an annual parent meeting by October 1st. At this meeting, the building principal provides parents with a school compact that outlines the steps that parents, school staff, and students will take to ensure academic success as a shared responsibility. During this meeting, the building principal updates the parents on the "state of the school." She will go over achievement data, school curriculum, an explanation of Title I and its benefits, and Family and Community Engagement opportunities (literacy nights, math nights, one book/one school, etc.). It is also during this time that parents are given the opportunity to complete a survey including suggestions to use Title I funds. (Julia Treadway, September 2022)

6: Coordination of Services

(Describe/List how the district and/or school will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners to provide additional supports and resources to families.)

- Central Elementary will utilize community resources to assist families. Resources will be shared with families via social media, backpack folders or Remind and Class DOJO applications. Working with the community allows Central Elementary to use resources to strengthen school programs. (Amanda Davis, classroom teachers, ongoing)
- Central Elementary will coordinate with Cabot Middle School South and Cabot Middle School North to help provide a smooth transition from one school to the next by raising parental awareness. Central Elementary, Cabot Middle School South, and Cabot Middle School North will work together to allow 4th grade students to visit and attend an orientation. (Amanda Davis, May 2022)
- Responsible parenting will be promoted through shared communication regarding child development and current trends in education. (Julia Treadway, ongoing)
- Parents and family members are invited to join our CIA group (parent-teacher organization) at any time throughout the year (family/community/teacher group). (Julia Treadway, Macy Leggett, ongoing)
- The Family and Community Engagement plan will be integrated into our school improvement plan where appropriate in order to increase family/community involvement. The support of our stakeholders will provide students with encouragement to improve their performance. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)
- Central Elementary will consider creating an advisory committee by recruiting alumni and their parents. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)
- Central Elementary will utilize community resources to support families including Cabot Christmas Alliance, the Back to School Fair, local volunteers packing food backpacks, and coordinating with outside agencies for mental health and other services. (Amanda Davis, ongoing)
