1: Jointly Developed Expectations and Objectives

(Describe/List how parents will be involved in the development of the school Family and Community Engagement plan and how parents will be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of Family and Community Engagement programs.)

- Parents are involved in the development of the family and community engagement plan. (Mike Singleton, 2022)
 - Cabot Middle School South will enable a Parent Teacher Organization to involve parents in the development of the school's Family and Community Engagement plan using various forms of communications:
 - 1) Live discussions with parents attending the morning and evening Parent Teacher Organization meetings.
 - 2) Written and digital comprehensive needs assessment filled out by parents.
 - 3) Written and digital survey of satisfactions/dissatisfactions of parental engagement events presently offered. (Mike Singleton, September 2022)
 - 4) In the event we are not able to meet in person, technology such as email, Google Forms, Zoom, or other technology will be utilized to collaborate.
- Parents will be involved in the review, update, and improvement annually of the Family and Community Engagement Plan to meet the changing needs of the school community. (Mike Singleton, ongoing)
 - Cabot Middle School South will collect specific information on the (1) specific needs of parents; (2) effectiveness of specific engagement strategies; and (3) engagement of parents in activities to support student academic growth. Data will also be collected to determine the area of growth or decline in the number of parents participating in given engagement opportunities. (Mike Singleton, 2022)
- Cabot Middle School South will ensure that parents are represented in a variety of roles. (Mike Singleton, ongoing)
 - Parents will be involved in a variety of roles throughout the Family and Community Engagement Plan and will be asked to help review, evaluate and update annually. (Mike Singleton, ongoing)
 - Cabot Middle School South will ask parents to complete a parent interest survey at the beginning of the school year to obtain information concerning the activities they feel would be most beneficial to support their child academically, as well as concerning ways that they could volunteer their time. (Mike Singleton; October 2022)

- A year end evaluation of this collected data will determine the effectiveness of the current Family and Community Engagement Plan and changes will be made if warranted. (Mike Singleton, May 2022)
- Parents may submit comments to the district if the Title I Schoolwide Plan is not satisfactory to parents. (Melanie Duerkop, ongoing)
 - A suggestion form will be available to any parent/family members for parents to submit comments to the district if the Title I plan is not satisfactory. (Matt Sheets, Fall 2022)
- Cabot Middle School South will provide opportunities for regular meetings as requested by parents. (Matt Sheets, ongoing) school and new student registration using the online registration platform. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)

- Parent meetings will be offered at various times. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
- Parent meetings will be offered in different formats. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)

3: Building Staff Capacity

(Describe/List activities such as workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, online resources, and Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings that will be used with school staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners. Describe/List methods of parents' assistance for building staff capacity. Describe/List actions the school will take to provide other reasonable support for Family and Community Engagement activities.)

- Cabot Middle School South will ensure professional development requirements are met for teachers and administrators. The yearly schedule of state required topics, including family and community engagement will be followed. (Sherri Jennings, ongoing)
- Cabot Middle School South will train teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents:
 - That parents play an integral role in assisting student learning
 - In the value and utility of contributions of parents
 - In how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners
 - To implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between home and school
 - To welcome parents into the school and seek parental support and assistance
 - To provide information in a format, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand
 - To respond to parent requests for family and community engagement activities (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
- Parents are recognized as a full partner and the process for resolving parent concerns or conflict is included in the handbook. (Michael Byrd, ongoing)

4: Building Parent Capacity

(Describe/List activities, such as workshops, conferences, classes, online resources, Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings, and any equipment or other materials that may be necessary to support parents in helping their student's academic success.)

- Cabot Middle School South will schedule regular family and community engagement meetings. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
- Cabot Middle School South will provide parents with a description and explanation of the curriculum. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
 - Curriculum descriptions and information about the standards by which students are taught are discussed via Parent/Teacher Conferences. Resource sheets for math curriculum can be obtained at this time or via the Parent Center.
- Cabot Middle School South will provide parents with individual student academic assessment results and interpretation of those results. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
 - Teachers will hold conferences individually with parents of children in their classrooms. Parents will be given a summary of the student's test scores and an explanation of the interventions teachers are using to assist the child in reaching achievement goals. Parents will also be made aware of their student's reading levels and Phonics First Reading Intervention if required. MAP testing data is also provided at this time. Parents will be asked to engage in discussion of how they can support these efforts. Parents will also be given suggestions for coordinating school-parent efforts and explanations of homework, grading procedures, and educational websites that parents can find useful in assisting their child with math and reading. Cabot Middle School South will distribute letters to parents containing the login and PIN information needed to access eSchool giving them 24-hour online access to their child's grades, missing assignments, and attendance records.
- Cabot Middle School South will provide parents with a description and explanation of the assessments used to measure student progress and achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards. (Matt Sheets, ongoing)
- Provide assistance and instruction to parents of children served by the school in understanding these topics:

This committee meets twice per month for planning school improvement and fund distributions. The School Improvement Plan will align with the Family and Community Engagement Plan. The Family and Community Engagement Plan is both comprehensive and coordinated.

6: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised Family and Community Engagement plan.)

Cabot Middle School South will hold the annual Title I meeting in September 2022 on campus to inform parents of their rights under Title I. (Matt Sheets, September 2022)

7: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

- Cabot Middle School South will jointly develop a School-Parent Compact to
 - Outline how parent, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement
 - Address the importance of regular two-way meaningful communication through
 - A minimum of two conferences each year
 - Frequent progress reports
 - Reasonable access to staff
 - Opportunities to volunteer
 - Observation of classroom activities
 - Build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the challenging State academic standards
 - Encourage school staff to use volunteer surveys to compile a volunteer resource book listing interests and availability of volunteers
 - Involve parents in a variety of roles
- (Mike Singleton, ongoing)

8: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for Family and Community Engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for Family and Community Engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

Cabot Middle School South will engage parents in decisions about the allocation of its Title I, Part A fund for family and community engagement and decisions made to create the school improvement plan. This will be assessed in the Parent Needs Assessment distributed in the fall of 2022. Cabot Middle School South will invite two community members to serve on the Parent Advisory Committee/Parent Teacher Organization. The Title I budget will be allocated from the input from these sources. The budget will also be reviewed at the Annual Title I meeting in September with an opportunity for parents to give input and ask questions.
