Overview of the Competition

Opening Section – Fun Wear:

Contestants should wear an outfit that represents their personal interests. This could include a hobby or activity they enjoy, a “team” uniform, or any casual clothing that best represents the contestant. Please make sure all Fun Wear clothing is age appropriate. The pageant director has the right to reject any clothing the night of the pageant if clothing is questionable. This portion of the pageant accounts for 30% of the contestant’s pageant score.

Talent Section:

This portion of the pageant is where the contestant showcases a special talent. (Dancing, Singing, Acting, Playing a musical instrument etc.) Talent portion should be no longer than 2 minutes. Time limit of 2 minutes will strictly be enforced. A microphone will be provided. If the contestant has music that needs to be played, the music should be emailed to leslie.doss@cabotschools.org or burned to a cd and given to the pageant director the night of rehearsal. Contestants should have two copies of the cd...just in case! Please mark the cds with the contestant’s full name.

This portion of the pageant accounts for 30% of the contestant’s pageant score.

Evening Wear Section:

During this portion of the pageant, contestants show their grace and pose in a formal evening gown. No cocktail dresses are allowed.

This portion of the pageant accounts for 30% of the contestant’s pageant score.

On-Stage Question Section:

Contestants will be asked one of the five on-stage questions. (A copy of the questions will be given to contestants at the pageant rehearsal.) Contestants should answer the question to the best of their ability. Answers should be around 30 seconds in length. The question will be asked at the end of their evening wear model by one of the pageant MCs.

This portion of the pageant accounts for 10% of the contestant’s pageant score.
