1: Jointly Developed

(Describe/List how parents will be involved in the development of the school parent and family engagement plan and how parents will be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of parent and family engagement programs.)

- Eastside Elementary will create a Parent-Teacher Organization that will involve parents on school improvement planning committees. (Jill Fletcher, August 2019 – May 2020)
- Parents involved with the Eastside Elementary PTO will be involved in the review, evaluation and updating of the Parent and Family Engagement Plan annually. (Angelia Joslin, ongoing)
- The school will ask parents to serve on curricular and instructional review committees so that they are represented in a variety of roles (Angelia Joslin, ongoing).
- Eastside will hold Parent Town hall meetings at various times during the day in order to accommodate differing family schedules. (Jill Fletcher, ongoing).

2: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation as well as the parents' rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised parent and family engagement policy.)

Eastside Elementary is not recognized as a Title I School.

3: Communications

(Describe/List how the parent and family engagement policy will be distributed to parents and how the school is going to communicate with parents including information about how the school will provide information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to parents in a format, to the extent practicable, and in a language that parents can understand.)

- Eastside Elementary will provide families with a Parent and Family Engagement Survey that will take an inventory of volunteer interests. (Angelia Joslin, October 2019)
- Results from the above-mentioned survey will be included in the Eastside

Elementary Parent and Family Engagement Plan. This will be provided to parents in an informational packet that describes the Parent and Family Engagement Plan, recommends roles and ways for parents to be involved, and the contact information for Angelia Joslin, Eastside's Parent and Family Engagement Facilitator (501-743-3563 or angelia.joslin@cps.k12.ar.us). (Angelia Joslin, October 2019).

- Parents will receive their informational packet and Parent and Family Engagement Plan at parent-teacher conferences in October and teachers will obtain signatures acknowledging their receipt. Parents will also be notified that an electronic copy can be found on Cabot Public Schools website. (Teachers, October 2019).
- Eastside Elementary will distribute a bi-monthly newsletter to parents that is developed with participation of the parent-school organization, principal, staff, and parent volunteers. It includes school news, a calendar of school activities, and parenting tips related to school achievement such as homework tips, organizational skills, and study skills. (Jill Fletcher, Madison Darr, ongoing).
- Eastside will create a Website to house pertinent information, including school news and upcoming school events. Parents are also able to access their child's grades with their student account number. Parents may use e-mail to communicate with members of the school staff. Parents are also informed of school news and events via the Eastside Twitter and Facebook pages. (Madison Darr, ongoing).
- Eastside Elementary teachers will routinely contact parents on an individual basis to communicate about their child's progress. (Teachers, ongoing)
- Eastside Elementary will provide to parents reports/report cards every nine weeks with information regarding their child's academic progress and upcoming classroom and school events. (Teachers, ongoing)
- Eastside Elementary will send brochures home with students, post notices in school facilities and public buildings, and provide information for local newspapers about parent workshops and meetings. (Jill Fletcher, ongoing).
- Eastside Elementary will offer parent meetings and family nights at various times to accommodate different family schedules. Information gathered at these meetings will then be distributed in various formats to ensure all parents stay in the know. (Jill Fletcher, ongoing).

4: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

Eastside Elementary is not recognized as a Title I School.

5: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for parent and family engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for parent and family engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

Eastside Elementary is not recognized as a Title I School.

6: Coordination of Services

(Describe/List how the district and/or school will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners to provide additional supports and resources to families.)

- To take advantage of community resources, Eastside Elementary shall consider recruiting alumni from the school to create an alumni advisory commission to provide advice and guidance for school improvement. (Angelia Joslin, ongoing)
- Eastside Elementary shall enable the formation of a Parent Teacher Association or organization that will foster parental and community involvement within the school. (Jill Fletcher, August 2019)

(Jill Fletcher, Michael Byrd, ongoing)
- Eastside Elementary will seek parental support and assistance by implementing and incorporating parent programs into the school's culture. With this, strong ties can be built between the home and the school. (Jill Fletcher, ongoing)

9: Building Capacity - Discretionary

The school parent and family engagement policy/plan may include additional sections describing other discretionary activities that the school, in meaningful consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build capacity.

Eastside Elementary encourages parent and family involvement though the following programs and activities:

- Open House: Families have the opportunity to visit classrooms and meet faculty members. Parents receive information about ways to volunteer, transportation for students, free/reduced lunch, as well as the student handbook regarding school policies and procedures. (Teachers, Jill Fletcher, Angelia Joslin, August 2019)
- New Students Orientation: Families new to Eastside Elementary will be given the opportunity to come early before Open House for a question and answer time, information provided about the school, and time to get to the classrooms before the doors open for the rest of the students/families. (Jill Fletcher, August 2019)

- Gifted & Talented Open House: Families of students in the Gifted & Talented Program have the opportunity to visit the Gifted & Talented classroom, meet the Gifted & Talented specialist, and receive an overview of G. T. programming within the district. (Scott Patterson, October 2019)
- Parent/Teacher Conferences: Teachers will hold conferences individually with parents of children in their classrooms. Parents will be given a summary of the student's test scores and an explanation of the interventions teachers are using to assist the child in reaching achievement goals. Parents will also be given suggestions for coordinating school-parent efforts and explanations of homework and grading procedures. Parents will engage in discussion of how they can support their child at home. Conferences are scheduled at various times (3:15-7:00) during the day or evening to better accommodate parents. (Jill Fletcher, October 2019 and April 2020)
- Grands Family Night: Eastside Elementary will host a special evening to recognize grandparents and families. Guests are given the opportunity to have learn about daily school activities, visit the classrooms and activity rooms, enjoy a hot dog supper, as well as enjoy playing games together as a family. (Jill Fletcher, September 2019)
- Scholastic Book Fair: Families have an opportunity to attend the book fair with their children to purchase books and encourage the love of reading among students. Volunteers are able to help set up/tear down the book fair, as well as assist students/families in purchasing books. (Rachel Hammett, Fall 2019 and Spring 2020)
- Academic Nights: Eastside Elementary will host a special opportunity for families to participate in engaging activities that are aligned with classroom curriculum. Each grade level will present families with content related activities for them to engage with their children. (Angelia Joslin, January/February 2020)
